

Kuusakoski countries continue to monitor how coronavirus affects business

4/3/2020

It has turned out that the effects of coronavirus (Covid-19) are very varied in Kuusakoski countries. While other Kuusakoski country areas continue to operate normally, others have had to adjust their operations according to the local situation.

The management of each country continues to monitor closely the local situation. You can find the contact information for all Kuusakoski countries here.
